We would like to extend a warm invitation to you and the members of XLProjects to join us in the vibrant city of Barcelona for an exclusive project cargo logistics event. As a leading international project cargo logistics hub, Barcelona is the ideal destination for our event, where members can connect with our other members, who are project logistics industry leaders, and learn about the latest advancements in project cargo logistics and supply chain management.

Barcelona is strategically located on the Mediterranean coast, making it a convenient location for project cargo logistics with excellent connections to the main European markets and Africa. The Port of Barcelona is one of the busiest in the Mediterranean, handling all types of project cargo, from heavy lift and oversize to breakbulk and general cargo. Additionally, the city boasts a number of specialized logistics parks catering to project cargo, with state-of-the-art facilities and equipment.

Beyond logistics, Barcelona is a city of culture and history, with a wealth of architectural masterpieces, museums, and galleries to explore. Visitors can also enjoy a diverse range of cuisines in the city's many world-renowned restaurants and experience lively nightlife.

The event will take place at Hyatt Regency Barcelona Tower on October 30 - November 2, with plenty of networking opportunities. We are confident that this event will provide valuable insights and foster new connections among the members of XLProjects.

We look forward to welcoming you to Barcelona and please let us know if you have any questions or need assistance with travel arrangements.

Located on the Mediterranean coast, Barcelona is one of the world's most popular tourist destinations. This cosmopolitan city is also one of Spain's most important economic, cultural and commercial hubs, attracting both leisure and business tourism from all over the globe. Every year, thousands of tourists visit Barcelona to discover its uniqueness or attend numerous conferences, committees and other types of meetings.

Barcelona is brimming with culture. It has numerous renowned museums like the Fundació Joan Miró or the Museu Picasso, but you'll appreciate the city's love for art by simply strolling through its streets filled with history and charm. Barcelona's famous artist Antonio Gaudí dedicated his years to filling the city with life and magic through iconic works of architecture such as the famous Sagrada Família, the beautiful modernist building of La Pedrera, and the amazing Park Güell which can be seen throughout the city.

Apart from its museums and monuments, Barcelona is not only art, but also has a more relaxed side shown in the form of sunny beaches that combine perfectly with a delicious gastronomy, details that make the city a real paradise for all kinds of visitors to the city.

If there ever were a city to be defined as “cosmopolitan,” it would be Barcelona. More international than Spanish, it has been a vital Mediterranean port for centuries. Just spend a sunny afternoon hanging your feet off the docks of Port Vell and you’ll immediately notice the diversity of nationalities, cultures, ethnicities and languages that Barcelona encompasses.

The Catalan people speak two official tongues –Catalan and Spanish. The Euro (€) is the currency used in Barcelona, like in the rest of Spain and most countries in the European Union. It is the capital and largest city of the autonomous community of Catalonia, as well as the second most populous municipality of Spain. With a population of 1.6 million within city limits, its urban area extends to numerous neighbouring municipalities within the Province of Barcelona and is home to around 4.8 million people, making it the fifth most populous urban area in the European Union after Paris, the Ruhr area, Madrid, and Milan. It is one of the largest metropolises on the Mediterranean Sea

Barcelona is also a transport hub, with the Port of Barcelona being one of Europe’s principal seaports and busiest European passenger port, an international airport, Barcelona–El Prat Airport, which handles over 50 million passengers per year, an extensive motorway network, and a high-speed rail line with a link to France and the rest of Europe.

The Plus One Club

Barcelona is an incredible city for business and tourism. Therefore we are sure there will be a number of our members who will want to bring their partners this year.

As such, we would like to arrange some group activities for your spouses to enjoy whilst the hard work and meetings go on.

The Plus One Club will include the following:

- The welcome cocktail (30th October)
- A private lunch for the plus one members (31st October)
- Afternoon activity (31st October)
- The banquet dinner (31st October)
- A private lunch for the plus one members (1st November)
- Afternoon activity (1st November)
- Closing Cocktail (2nd November)

We are currently finalizing the specifics of this program and will announce more information shortly.

*Please note the plus one club only applies for registered spouses with the event. The cost is USD 395.00 per person. *Please also note that the spouses are not able to attend the one-to-one meetings.
